MISSOURI APPELLATE COURT OPINION SUMMARY

MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS
WESTERN DISTRICT

DAVID PILOSKI,

APPELLANT,

v.

DIVISION OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY,

RESPONDENT.

No. WD79597

Labor and Industrial Relations Commission

Before Division One: Thomas H. Newton, Presiding Judge, Cynthia L. Martin, Judge and Edward R. Ardini, Jr., Judge

David Piloski appeals from the decision of the Labor and Industrial Relations Commission denying him unemployment benefits. Piloski argues that the Commission erred in concluding that he did not have good cause to voluntarily quit his employment.

AFFIRMED.

Division One holds: Piloski failed to establish that he had good cause to voluntarily quit his employment because mere change in work duties do not support a finding of good cause and the changes in Piloski's work conditions were not substantial and were not demonstrated to cause adverse health effects.
